

Own your own slice of paradise at Grays

Grays marketplace offers 5 lots in an exclusive Queensland resort on South Stradbroke Island.

Grays marketplace continues to make inroads into the property market, offering five lots within the 4 Star Couran Cove Resort located on South Stradbroke Island. In conjunction with Wilson Property Group, Grays is offering buyers a unique opportunity to own a slice of paradise, located just 25 minutes from Queensland's Gold Coast, with an online auction commencing on Thursday September 3, 2020.

Wilson Property Group's Geoff Molloy says, "These apartments are a great opportunity for investors looking to up their game in the real estate market, or to simply own a slice of paradise in an amazing resort with both Broadwater and Pacific Ocean frontage."

Spanning 55 hectares on South Stradbroke Island, this amazing coastal property is surrounded by pristine and protected National Park. In addition, it features 1.2km of Pacific Ocean beach front as well as Gold Coast Broadwater frontage.

Opened in 1998 at a cost of $300 million, this resort hosted both the Australian and United States Olympic teams as they prepared for the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games. The five lots will suit owners looking for a fabulous lifestyle, or investors seeking solid rental returns. The resort offers a wide range of facilities and activities:

- 100+ berth marina
- Restaurants, bars and cafes
- Kids club
- Conference facilities
- Waters sports and aquatic playground
- 25 metre eight lane pool, plus children's pool/playground
- Day spa
- Sports facilities including tennis, squash, basketball, volleyball, gyms and mini golf
- Children's playground
- Walking tracks
