

MHD-ROCKLAND SIGNS A DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT WITH PPG AEROSPACE

Australia, July 22nd, 2021 - MHD-ROCKLAND, a world-class supplier of fixed-wing aircraft parts and services, announced that they have entered into an agreement with PPG's Aerospace business for distributing their transparency products and managing repairs for a number of military platforms including: P-3, CH-47, C-27J, LM-100, F-18, UH-60 and KC-30.

"We are excited to be selected by PPG as their distribution partner," stated Bryan Dollimore, CEO MHD-ROCKLAND. "This partnership will further enhance our ability to provide support for operators worldwide, while continuing our mission to offer high quality solutions for military and civilian platforms", he added.

As per the agreement, while MHD-ROCKLAND maintains global distribution rights for all the platforms named above, MHD-ROCKLAND Pty (Australia) is the preferred distributor for PPG Transparency Products for Australia and New Zealand, more specifically for the C-130 and C-130 J platforms.

"This will provide our Australasia partners a direct conduit to procure transparencies from MHD-ROCKLAND stock that is supported by PPG and its affiliates" said Richard Vorias, Managing Director MHD-ROCKLAND Australasia. "MHD-ROCKLAND partners will continue to benefit from local support and services out of its Australia and New Zealand locations" he added.

"PPG's Aerospace business looks forward to better supporting military aircraft operators by entering a partnership with MHD-ROCKLAND that provides immediate availability of new and overhauled military transparencies" said Mark Ingram, Military and OEM Account Manager, PPG Aerospace Australia.
